

Cut out the rectangles individually and stack from shortest to longest.

Cut out the title page and glue to the shortest (top) rectangle.

Hold them horizontally and staple them all together on the right hand side.

Cut out the story line sentences and the plague banners and glue them in the correct order.

Moses was born in Egypt to an Israelite family.

Moses grew up in the palace as an Egyptian.

When Moses grew up God called on him to help free the Israelites from slavery.

Moses asked pharaoh to let his people go.

Pharaoh refused to free the Israelites.

God sent ten plagues upon the Egyptians.

Pharaoh let the Israelites go after the 10th plague.

But Pharaoh changed his mind after the Israelites left Egypt.

The Egyptian army chased the Israelites.

When they came to the Red Sea, God helped Moses part it so the Israelites could cross. When the Egyptians tried to cross the Red Sea the water closed over them.
