

Cut out the book as a whole, cut apart the flaps on the dotted lines. Answer the question that is inside the book by listing the five answers below on the inside of the flaps. Cut out the title and glue to the front of the book.

China: Writing and Quin

Chapter 32

- Melted his enemies weapons
- Forced them to move into his capital city
- Executed anyone planning treason
- Built roads so his army could move quickly
- Burnt books

China used to be six different countries. Then the Quin conquered all the rest. China became one country, but the new emperor was cruel. China is named after the Quin.

What things did Quin Zheng (Shi Huangdi) do to keep his people from rebelling?