

Cut book out. Fold both sides to the middle so that they interlock. Cut out title and glue to the front. Then cut out the pictures and the "blurbs" to match them and glue the, collage style, to the inside of the book.

100

Hannibal drank poison when Carthage surrendered to Rome.

Hannibal fought Rome with elephants.

The Punic wars were fought mostly on water using navies.

Hannibal went over Alps to get to Rome with his Elephants.

The Punic Wars last for over 100 years.

The wars were fought because Carthage and Rome both wanted more land.

One Roman general had chickens for good luck and used them to predict the future.

Rome won the Punic Wars.

Rome's War with Carthage

Chapter 29